THIS DOCUMENT CONTAINS INFORMATION AFFECTING THE NATIONAL DEFENSE OF THE UNITED STATES WITHIN THE MEANING OF THE ESPIONAGE ACT 50 U.S.C. 31 AND 32, AS AMENDED. ITS TRANSMISSION OR THE REVELATION OF ITS CONTENTS IN ANY MANNER TO AN UNAUTHORIZED PERSON IS PROHIBITED BY LAW. REPRODUCTION OF THIS FORM IS PROHIBITED.

THIS IS UNEVALUATED INFORMATION

- 25X1 1. Average monthly production at the "Republica" factory prior to 9 May 1949 was 25X1 reportedly 5,000 tons monthly. Between 9 May and 23 August 1949 a "socialist emulation" or competition took place between crews in the plant; at the end of each week the workers received bonuses which some times amounted to 80 percent of their regular salary. Upon the completion of the competition it was determined that the monthly production average had been 12,000 tons. The workers were thereupon ordered to produce at this rate regularly, without bonuses being given.
2. Employees of government ministries have likewise been required to increase their hours of work and to undertake additional tasks. At the Ministry of National economy employees are required to work one and one-half hours daily over the standard work day. They do not always receive pay for this overtime.
Employees of this Ministry are required to participate in the following program:
- a. Monday - ARLUS meeting, lasting three to four hours;
 - b. Tuesday - A "long day", four to five hours are devoted to discussion of work and to "self-criticism";
 - c. Wednesday - Discussions of political and propaganda material appearing in the press, duration three to four hours;
 - d. Thursday - Meetings lasting until 11 p.m. or midnight;
 - e. Friday - A "long day", devoted to discussion of work and "self criticism".

Additional duties are usually assigned for Saturday. Employees must likewise prepare themselves for these special meetings and conferences.

25X1 [redacted] Comment: The "Republica" plant, formerly known as the Malaxa Pipe Works, is located in Bucharest. [redacted]
